Discussion Questions:

- 1 When you think of practices your church needs to focus on as you grow in discipleship, where does prayer rank on your list? How does your congregation use your church facility for prayer?

- 2 What kind of space do you imagine when you think of a “house of prayer?” Are there spaces in your church that invite prayer?

- 3 When you think of places in your life where you have met God in prayer, what comes to mind, and why? Perhaps it is something outdoors in nature—a secluded and quiet area of your house, or a chapel removed from the busyness of life. What are some small aspects of those spaces that you could incorporate or imitate in your church building?
