

ChurchPulse Weekly Podcast:

Skye Jethani and Kimberly Deckel on the Strengths and Weaknesses of American Church Traditions, Worship and Physical Gatherings

Listen here: Apple Podcasts - Google Podcasts - Spotify

Discussion Questions:

1 Skye talked about an exercise from Making Space for Millennials, where you enter a church space and try to discern what that church believes or values through what you feel and see in the space. Try this exercise in your church. What do you think your space communicates as you walk through it or sit in the sanctuary?

2 What do you wish people understood more about your church's mission and values? What could you do with your space to make that more apparent and encourage deeper engagement?

3 In your sanctuary, how do you invite people to participate in worship? If Bibles are not in your pew racks or seat backs, would you consider placing them there to encourage people opening the Word of God? What physical practices would you consider implementing to encourage people to feed themselves spiritually?
